Diane DeScala-Maiorisi, CNHP

Herbalist/Aromatherapist, Nutritional Counselor

Diane was born in Somerville, NJ. Her father moved the family to Vermont when she was 9 years old. It was there that she became interested in a more natural and healthier life style.

She missed the Jersey Shore and made her way back to New Jersey where she now resides.

Diane is married and has 3 children. It became apparent her first son Devin had some developmental challenges around the age of 2. She decided to start taking accredited courses to support him in 1989, by then she was experiencing some health challenges, also.

Devin was finally diagnosed with "Williams Syndrome" at 11 years old. Now, he is 23 and is medication free, thriving and healthy.

Energy Unlimited was established in 1993. Diane became a "Certified Natural Health Professional", Aromatherapist, Instructor and Herbalist. Advancing her essential oil education by studying in France. She enjoys offering "Personal Nutritional Counseling", Educational Classes, Organic Essential oils. Aromatic custom blended products always bring smiles to her clients' faces.

Diane's clients and family are her true inspiration. Seeing them achieve a better quality of life in their emotional and physical health has kept her going for the last 18 years.

Colleen Matus

A life long resident of New Jersey, Colleen Matus and husband Adam have been blessed with a daughter, Caitlin, and a son, Shane. Always involved in her community, Colleen lends a hand to the local food bank, organizing fundraisers and helping neighbors. When not working, she enjoys spending time with her family and friends, being a soccer mom for Caitlin, and cheering for Shane on the baseball field. Colleen especially likes drawing, painting, planning parties, and restoring furniture. Traveling with her family is what she enjoys most. Colleen's caring nature helps her provide a loving home for her family.

Colleen is a treatment coordinator for Dr. Balaji Srinivasan, a cosmetic and neuromuscular restorative dentist in Jackson, NJ. Being able to treat patients through neuromuscular science has enabled Colleen to help many more patients achieve superior results than typical dentistry offers. From esthetics to relieving long-time headache/migraine sufferers, her skills compliment Dr. Srinivasan's expertise.

Patients look forward to seeing Colleen's familiar and welcoming face. She enjoys the relationships she builds with her patients and looks forward to helping patients achieve their "Life Changing Dentistry"!
